Among the through passengers on board the steamship Doric, which arrived from the Orient this forenoon, is a party of distinguished Danish tourists who are on their way around the world. They are i. Bramsen, ex-Minister of Interior of Denmark; Captain A. Fick of the Royal Danish Navy, and

Th. Wessel, a partner of Wessel & Vett, one of the largest if not the largest business firms in Scandinavia.

Mrs. Barmsen, when seen by a Bulletin reporter immediately after the docking of the steamer, was eager to assure that his trip was entirely un official in its nature.

"We left Denmark on January 2 and are traveling as plain tourists for the purpose of seeing the sights of foreign countries. We have made an exten-sive tour of the Orient, visiting Egypt, India, Siam, China and many other places. We spent some weeks in Japan. We will go through the United States from San Francisco to New York, from which port we will return home. We intend to visit St. Louis to see the Exposition."
